

Institut für Geschichte der Medizin
Charité | Universitätsmedizin Berlin

ERC Research Group PAPERTECH
“Ways of Writing: How Physicians Know, 1500–1950”

Book project: Accounting for Health
Economic Practices and Medical Knowledge, 1500–1970

Second Workshop 2nd and 3rd December 2016

Friday, 2nd December 2016

13.00-13.45 Welcome, thematic introduction, organisational aspects

Session I – Practice

Chair: Alexa Geisthövel

13.45-14.30 Michael Stolberg (Würzburg): The economics of medical practice in 16th-century Germany: Hiob Finzel’s „Ratiocinium praxeos medicae“, 1565-1589

Commentary: Andrew Mendelssohn

14.30-15.15 Coffee break

15.15-16.00 Philip Alexander Rieder (Geneva): Paying for health in Geneva and the French context

Commentary: Helene Castenbrandt

16.00-16.45 Oliver Falk (Berlin): Countig Cases. Elliot Joslins Diabetes Research 1890-1960.

Commentary: Michael Stolberg

16.45-17.15 Coffee break

Session II – Industrious Figures

Chair: Axel C. Hüntelmann

17.15-18.00 Volker Hess (Berlin)/Jean-Paul Gaudillière (Paris): Drug research in the 20th Century
Commentary: Joris Vandendriessche

around 19.00

Diner in a Berlin Restaurant

Saturday, 3rd December 2016

Session III – Hospital Management

Chair: Marion Mücke

9.30-10.15 Barry Doyle (Huddersfield): Local, national, international: Contrasting accounting practices in the urban hospitals of England and France, 1890-1950

Commentary: Oliver Falk

10.15-11.00 Joris Vandendriessche (Leuven): Between pragmatism and technocracy.
Scientific management in the Leuven academic hospitals, 1940s-1960s

Commentary: Christopher Sirrs

11.00-11.30

Coffee break

11.30-12.15 Axel C. Hüntelmann (Berlin): Household economy and the hospital 1790-1920

Commentary: Barry Doyle

12.15-13.30

Lunch

Session IV – Welfare

Chair: Oliver Falk

13.30-14.15 Andrew Mendelsohn (Berlin/London): Mining: Early Modern Medical-Industrial Complex and Welfare State

Commentary: Philipp Rieder

14.15-15.00 Helene Castenbrandt (Copenhagen): The economics of sickness funds

Commentary: Volker Hess

15.00-15.30

Coffee break

15.30-16.15 Christopher Sirrs (London): How Much? Where From? Who To? What For? Comparative Health Accounting in Historical Perspective, 1924–2011

Commentary: Axel C. Hüntelmann

16.15-17.00 Final discussion

In the evening get together [...] tba.